FIFTH SERMON IN THE SERIES:
A COMMUNITY OF RADICAL GRACE
FOR A WORLD IN NEED

PHILIPPIANS 2:1-18

Rev. Tim Shaw
Sixth Sunday of Easter
May 13, 2012

WELCOME The eleven:27 is a community as varied as that found in Berkeley, with the hope that all feel welcome. The eleven:27 is casual in nature, incorporating a variety of contemporary music styles and thoughtful teaching. There are opportunities to worship through tangible acts of compassion and justice. Our desire is to come together as a community, growing in our love of Jesus Christ, one another, and the world.

COMMUNITY RESPONSE

In 2008, we began the eleven:27 worship service with an eye towards welcoming friends and families from the East Bay community and incorporating acts of justice within the worship service. As we celebrate the fourth anniversary of the eleven:27 service, we want to be attentive to the ways God has been moving in our lives together. We will be hearing stories of how God is leading individuals to 'do the ordinary, with extraordinary vision for the glory of God.'

This service features dynamic music and engaging teaching. There are many opportunities to connect, grow, and serve. The 5:05 is a place where people can ask hard questions, seek truth without formality or pretense, and live out God's love and justice for the world.

Giving Update

Our giving is up over eleven percent from last year! This is really great news, and we are grateful for your generosity. In 2011 we rolled our mortgage payment into our budget, and we have included the full annual mortgage payment into the 2012 budget. To date we are approximately $206,000 under our new targeted giving level:

General Fund Giving for the period ending
April 30, 2012: $1,114,000
Giving Target for that same period: $1,320,000
Giving shortfall: ($206,000)

Thank you very much for your gifts to First Pres, both of service and finances. Please pray for continued faithful giving for 2012.
