Call to Worship

One: We extol you, our God and King, and bless your name for ever and ever.

All: Every day we will bless you, and praise your name.

One: One generation shall laud your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.

All: The might of your awesome deeds shall be proclaimed, and we will declare your greatness.

One: We shall celebrate the memory of your abundant goodness, and shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

All: Our mouths will speak the praise of the Lord, and all flesh will bless your holy name forever and ever.

One: Come let us worship God, tender and just.

Song: Build My Life

Worthy of every song we could ever sing Worthy of all the praise we could ever bring Worthy of every breath we could ever breathe and we live for you

Jesus, the name above every other name Jesus, the only one who could ever save
Worthy of every breath we could ever breathe
and we live for you, oh we live for you

Holy, there is no one like you, there is none beside you Open up our eyes in wonder and show us who you are and fill us with your heart and lead us in your love to those around us

And we will build our life upon your love
It is a firm foundation
And we will put our trust in you alone and we will not be shaken

Assurance of Pardon

One: Friends, believe the good news:

All: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven and are being made whole. Amen.

Passing the Peace

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Scripture: John 21:1-19

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment, for he had taken it off, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them, and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

One: The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Song: Come, All Christians, Be Committed

Come all Christians be committed to the service of the Lord Make your lives for him more fitted, tune your hearts with one accord Come into his courts with gladness, each his sacred vows renew Turn away from sin and sadness, be transformed with life anew

Of your time and talents give him, they are gifts from God above to be used by Christians freely, to proclaim his wondrous love Come again to serve the savior, tithes and offerings with you bring In your work with him find favor and with joy his praises sing

God's command to love each other as required of ev'ryone; showing mercy to each other mirrors his redemptive plan In compassion he has given of his love that is divine On the cross sins were forgiven, joy and peace are fully thine

Come in praise and adoration all who on Christ's name believe Worship him with consecration, grace and love will you receive For his grace give him the glory, for the spirit and the word, and repeat the gospel story till the world his name has heard
