Category	Pre-GCC Resources	Post-GCC Resources
Book	Laudato Si: On Care for our Common Home (2015) by Pope Francis In this modern day classic among people of faith who care about the environment and their neighbors near and far, the pope critiques consumerism and irresponsible development, laments environmental degradation and global warming, and calls all people of the world to take "swift and unified global action." OR Climate Church, Climate World: People of Faith Must Work for Change (2018) by Jim Antal Rev. Jim Antal presents the case that climate change is the greatest moral challenge humanity has ever faced. Hunger, refugees, poverty, inequality, deadly viruses, war—climate change multiplies all forms of global social injustice. Just as the church addressed previous moral challenges, Antal calls for the church to embrace a new vocation so that future generations might live in harmony with God's creation. He suggests ways people of faith can reorient what they prize through new approaches to worship, preaching, witnessing and other spiritual	Saving Us: A Climate Scientist's Case for Hope and Healing in a Divided World (2021) by Katharine Hayhoe In Saving Us, Hayhoe argues that when it comes to changing hearts and minds, facts are only one part of the equation. We need to find shared values in order to connect our unique identities to collective action. It is a multilayered look at science, faith, and human psychology. OR How To Avoid A Climate Disaster: The Solutions We Have and the Breakthroughs We Need (2021) by Bill Gates In this book, Gates presents what he learned in over a decade of studying climate change and investing in innovations to address global warming and recommends strategies to tackle it.
